

March 13, 1972

Dear Bro. Charles,

I didn't have time to answer your letter of March 3 properly.

I sent the financial records to date with Mrs. Langford when she left about 2 weeks ago. I also sent her with around $800.00.

As far as your new name, this shouldn't create any problems for us.

I was not "wondering how all of this happened. I trust the work our group has started over in Fatima, and am interested in its progress, of course. But for myself there is nothing complicated about the project. You are in Fatima, and now have the proper ~~maximak~~ eccesial (?) authority, being under the Bishop of Leria, etc.

I see no problems for fundraising, except for the temporary shock, which won't last more than a few days.!!!

The charter is filed under the name "Claretian Missionaries of Perpetual Adoration". I am sending a copy of your letter to Joe O'Conner in San Diego, our attorney, but I don't think this is a problem. People can just send their donations in care of MPA, etc.

Jim Conlin, Cris Pritchard, and Bill Nojokes are intending to be in Fatima before May 13, Jim received a letter from Father, then a telegram telling him to wait for another letter, which may or may not have arrived by this time. Bill Nojokes must have received a similar letter from Dennis Kelly, as he was very enthusiastic about going (yesterday).

We desperately need some copy for a newsletter. People what to know:

What the Missionaries of Perpetual Adoration are.
Will they ever come back to the states?
Are they Claretian?? (In spirit)
Will they be Chaplains of the Blue Army?
Where is their next house? Pontevedra?
How much money is needed for their house, the down payment, etc. Is $2.00 a day still the cost per seminarian?

7 What is the future? !!!!!????? (not really)
Anything that will bring the people here in touch
Thankyou for your understanding, Sincerely yours in Christ

Dear Kevin =

Please forgive this hasty note. It looks like several people are really "sparked-up" on the subject of helping Father & his order, financially.

They want to hold another pot-luck and invite the people who could not make it to the last one. Of course, they want me to supply the names - I can do it more intelligently, if I knew who was at the last pot-luck.

Joe O'Connor tells me you took the list of names of the people who were at the pot-luck. Would you please send me a copy of the names of the people who were there? I don't think I could accurately identify them ^{at} by memory.

Let's do this while enthusiasm is running high. Would appreciate the list as soon as possible.

The success of the last pot-luck was due to your complete, sincere, dedicated, humble, spirituality, which shone like a beacon in the dark. God love you - always - may you join

Father's order soon as it is your ardent desire -
I will remember your intentions in my prayers.

mailing out copies of Father's letters, etc.

Dear Kevin,

A Theology Professor translated the volumes of Noldin in the 1950's. It corresponds in paragraph numbers of the Latin text. There is an index and table of contents. It is stitched and cardboard covered bound, corresponding to the original for the most part. Would you wish one set of three volumes to examine? The cost of $6.00 for 800 pages bound is not severe. We have no other type of books available.

Please make your check out to Gilbert Geis, 2221 Jimray Court, Cincinnati, Ohio 45238 - if you wish us to send a set.

Sincerely,

Dear Joe,

Thankyou very much for letting me spend the night last Sunday emening. Your Russian Orthodox priest was very interesting, and I wish him well in his project. When I get a chance I might drop him a line.

Peter Nigg suggested I send the enclosed amendment of the Hiroshima - Gakuin Foundation on to you. His own lawyers for this organization were very concerned about sending money out of the country. It may interest you in light of the Claretian Missionaries of Perpetual Adoration.

In the meantime, I will try to keep you in touch with the situation in Fatima. Enclosed is a letter I just received from Jim Swope. He asked me to be prudent about saying anything about Father's condition, etc. However, you have been such help, that I will forward letters on to you as I get them.

Thanks again for your efforts, and I remain yours in the Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Dear Kevin Mannion -

Mrs. Decca talked to me re the possibility of one or two of the boys who are with Dr. Alcyonius returning to this country to speak before groups of people to encourage their support of these and the group at Satmar.

I doubt, very much, the feasibility of this approach to the problem. The cost alone of bringing these young men to the States would seem to me to be just so batten we in the expenses over there. It takes great persuasion - and sometimes not only to get people to part with small - let alone sizable - sums of money - and these boys - bles-

them - are mostly young and inexperienced; though keeping in mind always their need of encouragement and support

Without Father's presence, the Worlds hence suffer a loss of membership and support - No doubt it seems likely that support of this project so dear to his heart could be achieved without his presence. Even if this were possible, would people continue their support without constant reminders, etc.

Sorry to see this in such a pessimistic light - but am trying to view it from a practical

Rev. Fr. Leo Delgado
Claretian Provincial House
1119 Westchester Pl.
Los Angeles, California

Dear Reverend Fr. Superior in Corde Matris:

Many thanks for sending me via Mrs. Langford the attache case with its enclosures. I am answering the letters that were inclosed in the attache.

The son of Mrs. Langford, Mr. Joseph Michael Langford, one of my group, needs to be treated by a special doctor in San Diego who is familiar with his very delicate case. I will be very appreciative if he can, with your permission, bring to me the mailing list which I left downstairs in the room next to the guild room. This is a list of my friends and acquaintances which I have been collecting over the years and which numbers about 6000 names. Most of these names have been given to the Claretian Center. Also they have been copied in our Provincial House. The guild directors have all the names for their respective guilds. Also I have some electric razors in what used to be my bedroom at the foot of the bed. They will come in handy in this place. In the bedroom and also in the office downstairs which I used next to Fr. Provincial's office, there are some reliquaries with relics on the dresser and desk. Also in the same room upstairs and the same room downstairs there are quite a few little statues. In the clothes closet there are several pictures with frames. Could you displace these articles and hand them over to Mr. Langford as he visits you. Also there are two chalices and a ciborium upstairs in the clothes closet of what used to be my bedroom. I designed them to be fashioned by the artist Granda in Madrid and these were personal gifts to me from Mrs. Rose Marie Jackman on the occasion of the Silver Jubilee Celebration of my ordination. As a religious I am not entitled to them, but if in your kindness you give them to me, I will have something nice to give to my two infant congregations.

Mr. Langford may be accompanied by a young man who wishes eventually to join our group. His name is Kevin Manion. By the way, later on if Fr. Provincial favors me with an affirmative answer to continue on caring for the group I have under my direction I will send Mr. Manion again to you to get the rest of my belongings.

May God continue blessing your Reverence in all your ministerial work and in your duties as the local superior of the Provincial House. My most fraternal regards to every one in the community.

Fraternally Yours in C.M.

Fr. Alloysius Ellacuria C.M.F.

March 22, 1972

Dear "Kevin",

I've heard so much about you I feel I know you. God Bless you for everything you are doing.

I just talked to Alta Flocca and we discussed a couple of the boys coming back to raise funds. If one were a priest perhaps they could get permission to go from parish to parish to speak. But we felt it would be doubtful they could raise enough money now to pay them to come. This is only our opinion.

In sending you a check for them.

I feel will have to pray for another way.

Do you know if there is some "set" goal of money Father Alaysius needs to ~~get~~ keep going or does he want money for the place for them to live?

If we could ~~have~~ "X" dollars and work toward a goal of "X" dollars perhaps we could ~~get~~ others to give.

We must continue to pray for a way.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Eally

P.S. Excuse scribbling I'm writing this at the hairdressers!

I'm so pleased over Father Aloysius and the boys what they are doing because I believe firmly that Fatima is the Hope of the World!

Dearest John,

Warmest greetings from Fatima. Thanking you for all the interest and sacrifice and all the hard efforts you have taken for our cause. I am so very happy that Joseph Michael is in San Diego so that he can give you first-hand information about our pressing financial needs.

Your interests, dearest John, are in all our prayers. My best wishes for the most blessed Easter for yourself and your loving wife and children, and to Mr. and Mrs. Buck Jones.

Both Mrs. Langford and Mrs. Vandegrift reassured us of your incessant work for our infant congregation of Missionaries of Perpetual Adoration. For this we are so very grateful to you and are always praying for your spiritual and material welfare. May Our Blessed Mother of Fatima grant you special graces for your sanctification and that of your family.

Father Aloysius Ellacuria, CMF
Missionaries of Perpetual Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament and Perpetual Veneration of the Immaculate Heart of Mary
Apartado 30
Fatima, Portugal

My Dearest Father Aloysius,

Thank you, again, most sincerely for your efficacious prayers and those of your fellow Missionaries of Perpetual Adoration on behalf of Connie last month. We were greatly distressed by the first doctor we consulted, who felt that she had a large malignant tumor which required an immediate operation. You can imagine our relief when Connie was almost miraculously led to a doctor who was highly experienced in breast cancer, and who determined that the problem was a much less dangerous cyst, which, while it will require regular future examination and attention, was easily drained to provide immediate relief. We feel sure that your prayers resulted in our being guided to this treatment and good result. We will be ever grateful to you for your prayers and consoling words.

The news that your novices are now part of a new congregation fills us with mixed emotions. We are saddened by the thought that you will likely remain in Portugal with your new congregation, and, therefore, we will not have you near to give us your spiritual guidance directly. In all other respects, however, we feel that the formation of the new congregation is best for you and your novices. Being away from the restraining influence of the Provincial House here is better for your well-being, not only physically but also spiritually. Moreover, I feel that we are moving toward a period of repression of religious freedom in the United States, which, hopefully, you can avoid by remaining in Portugal. Your novices, too, are certainly better off in the less opulent surroundings of Fatima than, say, here, where the conduct of the seminarians of Calabasas with their girl friends has not only scandalized the Thomas Aquinas College students who share the same grounds, but has also been the subject of a recent Los Angeles Times article, which is highly embarrassing to those of us who have aided the Claretians over the years. (They certainly need your prayers, too!)

Your wonderful title most appropriately expresses your lofty aims: perpetual adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament and perpetual veneration of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. We announced the formation of your new congregation in our April Newsletter.

Father, we are not completely clear on your status relative to the Claretians Fathers. We have heard that only your novices are members of the new congregation, but that you personally are a Claretian of the Western Province and still subject to the authority of Westchester Place. We would appreciate knowing if this is the case if you can tell us. If you do plan to become part of the new congregation, it would make it easier to do what we would prefer, namely, to gradually decrease our current involvement with the Claretians here and become more involved in activities which promote your needs and those of your new congregation. Since your departure, we have felt most unwelcome at the Provincial House. Our girls who spend many hours each month to record and maintain our mailing list are treated coldly on the day that they spend each month at the Provincial House to mail the newsletters; there seems to be absolutely no appreciation for the fact that these ladies spend their time and their money to aid the Claretians. Many of these people would rather help you, who have always appreciated our efforts and have, moreover, given us a spiritual guidance which Westchester Place is not able to give us without you.

According to Father Leo, Father Provincial is also not clear on your status and is awaiting word from Rome. The presumption is that you will either remain Claretian, in which case you will likely be transferred to the Portuguese Claretian Province, or you may renounce your Claretian vows to take vows in your new congregation.

In the meantime, Father Leo is acting as our Spiritual Director but assumes that the Provincial will appoint a new Spiritual Director after the personnel changes expected in June. Father Leo says there is a good possibility that he will be transferred. We are continuing our newsletter as before, with the addition of items that Father Leo wants added, such as articles from the Vatican newspaper. He is agreeable to our including your messages as before, so please continue to send them to us by the 1st of each month for the following month's newsletter.

The response to our CMA membership solicitation, incidentally, has been better than I expected, with responses received from over half of those on our former mailing list. (We now mail out 590 newsletters compared with 1125 last year; some are couples, so actual membership is about 750 at present.) Attendance at our meetings has been much lower since your absence, on the other hand. And with the news this month that you are not likely to return soon, Katherine Morrow's Mother of Divine Love Guild and Lamb of LA/Orange Counties decided to discontinue their meetings entirely.

You will be pleased to hear that the new lights which you desired for the lower hall have been purchased and installed. Installation of the lights by Brother Alvin enabled us to keep the cost below $710. The fluorescent lights not only give better light but are also much easier on the eyes. The Claretians, who are making more and more use of the lower hall, have you to thank for this improvement.

In response to an urgent request from Sister Claire and yourself, Jim Conlan called on March 9, I believe, to get the sisters' things sent to Fatima immediately. That night your future novices, Chris Pritchard and Bill Naujoks, came to get the items. I gave them all the items listed on the attached sheet, which includes not only the items intended for the sisters' convents, but also items intended for yourself and for the Guild Room in the Provincial House. I kept one reliquary for Katherine Morrow. She wanted a reliquary which could hold a single relic of the True Cross; the only one left was less expensive than the one she had already paid for, but she prefers it to a more expensive reliquary which holds several relics.

I also retained one of the tall Immaculate Heart of Mary statues from Fatima. I had suggested to Sister Claire that this statue could be raffled off here to gain at least the cost of the statue. Replacement with a new statue obtained in Fatima would save the cost and risk of sending the statue back where it came from. Sister Claire liked this idea and plans to buy a new one in Fatima. We will start a raffle drive on May 13 and plan to have a drawing on October 13. In the meantime, it will help this cause if you will allow Tony Arpaia to put the other statue just like it into the Guild Room (lower hall) of the Provincial House so people can see what it looks like. (Or would you prefer to have us send the two statues that Tony has to you in Portugal?)

Other than these two items, I sent all your things with the exception of your Prado prints. I can send these now if you wish; alternatively, we may be able to figure out some way to raise money with them later which will at least pay their cost. At present, however, I don't have any good ideas on how we might do this.

With your permission, I will send Sister Claire a copy of the list of items I sent you so that she too will know which of the items belong to you as well as what we have for the sisters.

Thank you for sending Kevin Manion's address. I have spoken to him several times and tried to give him helpful suggestions to aid the work he is doing on behalf of your congregation. I have also offered to help him to the extent that my time permits.

We have announced your need for spiritual books in the newsletter. The response has been disappointing from this source. More effective have been several requests which Connie has made. For example, the sisters at the Monastery of the Angels have provided a number of good books.

Connie is getting a relic of the True Cross for Floreda Austin per your request.

Again, our deepest thanks to you for your prayers and solicitude. May your Easter be Holy and Joyful! Best regards to Charles and all your other Missionaries of Perpetual Adoration.

Sincerely yours in our Risen Savior and in His Blessed Mother,

Joe

Holy Thursday
March 30, 1972

Dearest Father,

We received with great joy your letter and with it your love and prayers. They are treasured more than anything else in this whole world!

We are also happy to know that you are feeling better and with continuing warm weather you'll feel better each day. We did not know you were so ill. Our dear beloved Spiritual Father, you have suffered much in many ways; how can your two congregations not become a reality with all this suffering and prayers behind it. The devil would naturally cause trouble only because he sees the many souls being sanctified and saved through these congregations. Our prayers and sacrifices and those of others are continuously ascending before the throne of God and to the Heart of our Blessed Mother--for your health, your needs and your heart's holy desires.

We miss you so terribly, Father, but we are offering our loss of having you here with us to God. We cannot see you, but we are in union with you spiritually in Holy Mass and Communion and in all the moments of the day. We unite our love for God with your love for God. Your holiness is our holiness. We are still your spiritual children, Father, now and forever. You are still helping us to sanctity from afar, but of course in God, with God, and through God there is no distance or time.

How can we ever thank you, dear Father, for your blessing, prayers, and comforting words of kindness to us when we phoned you in our terrible distress?

The moment we hung up the receiver of the phone, our hearts were filled with perfect peace. It was as though our Blessed Mother spread her beautiful mantle about us. We called you on Saturday morning. The doctor wanted to operate Sun, the 13th. We wanted to wait until Monday. On Sunday evening we went to our holy hour in honor of Our Lady of Fatima, begging her to guide us to the right doctor, for we were not sure of the surgeon we had. We are still so completely overwhelmed with the solicitude of our Holy Mother and how she directed us to a kindly Jewish doctor in Beverly Hills. He is a specialist in breast surgery, having written several medical books on the subject of which two are in the Vatican Library. On first examination he thought I would have to have surgery. I kept praying so hard. It seemed an eternity before he said that I was a lucky girl and he was sure the large lump was a cyst and no surgery would be necessary. He drained the cyst and the lump disappeared. He was so happy for me he cried; such a kind man. I told him that God had directed me to him--also that we had phoned you in Fatima, Portugal for your prayers and blessing. He seemed truly amazed and when I went back in a few days, he asked if I had told you the good news. I said, of course, we phoned you that evening. I told him that prayer moves mountains, but especially our dear Father's prayers. I also promised Blessed Mother (with Joe's permission) that if possible Joe and I would make a pilgrimage to her shrine at Fatima (and Lourdes too) to thank her for her great motherly love towards us.

Dear Father, I am collecting many excellent books for you. The Dominicans at the Monastery of the Angels were so good. They gave me a big box of them--some are excellent--just what you wanted. Mother of the Holy Cross said they will all pray for your health and your work.

I have Florida Austin's relic of the True Cross for her and will give it to her this week.

Today is Holy Thursday. I think it is my favorite day of the whole year.
Please God, may St. Anthony Claret develop in our souls, the longing and desire which were his union with Jesus in the most adorable Blessed Sacrament.

Again, I tell you, dear Father, that we are united with you in all that we do for God. This Holy Week we shall offer our love together with your love to our Beloved, Suffering Christ--who deserves our all.

A blessed and joyous Easter to you, Father, and our dear seminarians.
Together we all sing Allelulia; He is risen.

Eternally yours in the Holy Jesus and our Blessed Mother,

Connie

Mr. Joseph O'Connor, Attorney

Dear Mr. O'Connor,

I received yesterday your request for a re-cap of the activities for 1971.

From Mrs. Katherine Morrow, we received the sum of $10,000 which was totally applied to the purchase of property in Fatima, Portugal (as the down payment). $1,000 was received from an anonymous donation to be used as a "float" or checking account. This was intended to purchase things needed for the candidates in order to get ready for departure.

Off this account, $77.50 was taken for car insurance (the car was donated to us; it is a Dodge Lancer 1962 Model - barely running). $155.00 had to be put on repairs.

At one time, the checking went down to $40 and I sort of trembled at the thoughts that we could not get ready and could see no donations in sight. I, myself deposited $300 to the account so that I might purchase what the candidates needed. I did this in January '72.

At the end of February I received $2,000 from Mrs. Lu Shipstads and this was intended for incidentals.

Attached you will find a more complete run-down.

I am trying at the moment to get an Auxiliary formed and I have asked them to contact you in the event they would need some advice in order to get this properly set-up. The purpose of the Auxiliary would, at this time, be to raise funds to sponsor the flights for the candidates and their support. The candidates number 5 at the present with the hopes of a few more before departure. They are most willing girls, deeply religious and desirous of devoting their lives to the sanctification of souls; they are from families of modest means which does create a problem.

Also enclosed is a copy of the Approval received from the Bishop of Leiria and Ordinary of Fatima with a copy of the translation in English.

Two of the older candidates will be bringing whatever monies they have but, of course, these monies have to be kept untouched until the time of their perpetual vows (this according to Canon Law). We might use the interest on these monies, but it would never be sufficient for either support or payment on the property.

The convent was purchased (according to letters rec'd from Fatima) for the sum of $69,000. To date $18,950 was sent to Father Aloysius to be applied on the property. The balance is to be paid $10,000 yearly. We will have to believe in miracles as this is the only way we will eventually have the convent paid.

We do have hopes (in the near future) that a business transaction will bring us a sizable amount of money that we could and would apply to the property.

Our departure date is a tentative one. Brendan Tours have a flight on June 17th and one on June 24th. As we are scheduled to be in Fatima on July 1st, either one would do. I am to call Mr. Lawless at the end of April for a firm date. $500 deposit for the flights would have to be paid at that time, and the balance before departure.

I hope that I have not taken up too much of your time by this long letter. You can be assured of our prayers for your intentions in return for all you have done, are doing and will do for our "Foundation".

Sincerely in Saint Anthony Mary Claret

Dear Bro. Jim,

It has been a while since I have written. I am happy to hear you are working on the beatification of Jacinta and Francisco Marto.

Two evening ago I saw Dennis Kelly and Robert Wilson. They give very good example to us, since they carry the rosary, answer the prayers of Mass and other services with conviction. Father's sanctity is rubbing off on his seminarians.

(after their retreat)

Jim, before I have a chance to see the 3 seminarians I hope I can get your opinions on a few items:

The seminary wants to be self-sufficient, providing some goods and services to support itslef. As I understand it, this is one of the reasons wh y Joe, Dennis and Bro. John have come.

If this is the case, it seems whatever business you start in Fatima, it should be edifying. I have heard you planned to sell bumper stickers, flower decorations for cars, etc. Again this may be hearsay. However, I don't see any edification in this. What are your ideas? Is this as edyfying as baking bread, making wine, or even making marshmellows? I think not. Another point, If you picked this as a means of support, would you have the necessary source of supply? Could you order from Ameeicaf. Would this operation be feasible in Fatima?

They say over 4 out of every five businesses that start in the US fail. This is not because the entrepenures don't have the will to succeed, but rather, they were not throuough enought in analysizing the need, the sources of supply, or the actual costs involved. To go into business and be successful at it one must know the business he is going into. St. Anthony Mary Claret was successful in his father-s business, because he had worked with it for many years, as an aprentice, etc. He knew what he was dealing with, knew the market, etc.

I am not saying that the plan won't work. I'm saying that whatever the seminary deceides it should go into for supprting itself, it should be something basic, like food, shelter, cloathing, transportation, etc. And something edyfying, that befits a religious order.

Some ideas along these lines that come to mind:

- 1) Teaching English to Portuguese, either laymen or religious -- for a slight fee. Advertise the course by showing the public the goal, how many weeks it will take, etc. FREE LESSON, etc.
- 2) Collect garbage for a small fee. Nothing could be more edifying. Of course, if they don't have garbage this won't work!
- 3) When the pilgrims come, give them each a complimentary loaf of bread. Leave a basket for donations, serve coffee (American?) Something so the pilgrims will remember! You'll have to bake a lot of bread, there will be hundreds of thousands of them, but again this is edifying. (NOT TOO PRACTICAL, BUT THE POINT IS MADE)
- 4) Make sandwiches. Fatima uses a lot of them. But check your source of supply.
- 5) Push St. Anthony Mary Claret and his spirituality. Get pamphlets on him, statues, medals. Make your house in Fatima (when you get one) an attraction. Maybe a statue of St. Anthony in an outdoor chapel. Room for many pilgrims.
- 6) Even an instant printing service would be good. There must be a need for ditto, and mimeograph. Maybe you could survey the religious communities in Fatima to see if they could use this type of service.
- 7) Your marshmallow idea sounds good. Do they have donuts overthere? Demonstrate these in the small shops, etc. (Fortune cookies with sayings from the saints, gospel, etc.)
- 8) Be tour guides for any English speaking pilgrims. Think up some kind of unique tour that stresses St. Anthony Mary Claret, etc.
- 9) Be a host to all visitors, pilgrims and strangers that come to Fatima. Could you invite them in for a cup of coffee. And a DONUT (or Marshmellow?) Have a guest book for visitors to sign with their names and addresses. . . Then send them copies of the newsletter which you are sending us (??). Always stress the spirituality of the Saints, as this is most edifying. (unless I am mistaken)

If I can think up these possibilities in a few minutes, how many more could you and the others think up. There are just hundreds of possibilities, none of them complicated.

Whatever you eventually decide upon, people, pilgrims visitors, tourists will remember the Missionaries of Perpetual Adoration by their edifying manners, single-nest of purpose -- the praise and honor of God, the goal of high sanctity, second only to St. Anthony Mary Claret, etc.

This is the reason for writing this letter. Your financial support should be edifying, humble, and dedicated. I, as a layman, do not see catering to a fad, bumpersticker or what have you, as part of the Missionaries of Perpetual Adoration.

If, as St. Thomas Aquinas says, you know a thing by what it does, its actions and outward appearances, your work should reflect your over-all goal.

Thankyou for your patience. I am sending a sopy ~~of~~ this letter to Bill Bessey.

Sincerely yours in the Most Blessed Trinity,

Kevin

P.S. Stick to services, give more than you receive, etc.

I hope this will ~~provoke~~ further discussion.

Dear Father Aloysius,

I know it must look like simple rudeness that I have not written to you before to thank you for speaking to my sister-in-law, Marguerite Young, at Sharp Hospital thru the courtesy of Sister Marguerite Carter - she shall always be Mother Celine to me -

I am sure you would not remember me, but I was Mother's driver, companion, nurse etc. when I was in the Carmelites. I met you once year ago when I drove her out to see you - I was Sister John Thomas - I have never forgotten you -

The reason I have delayed in writing to thank you was because I wanted to be able to tell you about Marguerite's (my sister-in-law) progress -

She is an only child - Her father a real Irish Catholic and her mother is a convert - She is one of those truly wonderful persons who is warm, fun, and generous and always thinking of others. She is a truly humble person and a true "giver". My brother was very lucky to find such a person. They were married out of the church as my family was not Catholic - Father, I became a Catholic - I worked with the Immaculate Heart Sisters at Blessed Sacrament Church and became a close friend of Father Glazier and Sister Mureen - I arranged for my brother and Marguerite's oldest daughter to attend the school there - In time my brother Bob, and Marguerite were married in the Rectory by Father Glazier. He also baptised my oldest nephew and two nieces and I became their God mother.

While I was a novice my father became ill with cancer - It so happened Mother Celine & I were here for her health - I chose to remain and care for him and start my novitiate over - My father told me he wished to become a Catholic before he died so I baptised him and then got the Priest to do it so I was certain it was done properly - My mother was very displeased when I joined the church -

Oddly enough, it was she who suggested I see if I could contact you thru Mother Celine - I have told you these things to give you the background to Bob and Marguerite's life - My brother never did join the church but has been going to Mass with Sis and faithfully saying Novenas.

When I got home from school (the day you spoke to Marguerite) my brother called very worried that the call hadn't come to the hospital yet - I told him I was certain it would soon but would check at Fallbrook -

Soon after my nice called and said you had spoken to Marguerite. I went out to the hospital and as I was getting off the elevator my brother and my youngest niece, Patty, were coming down the hall. I knew by the expression on my brother's face something very special had happened. Bob was overwhelmed and searched helplessly for words. He said when you started to talk to Sis he was overwhelmed with something happening to him - I looked at Patty, and she replied, "Me too." Marguerite said it came thru the phone to her and my older niece experienced it also. She said the only way she could describe it was that it was as if she was being bodily lifted up right off the floor.

I had never seen anything like Marguerite's mouth even as a nurse. Her blood platelet count had fallen to 3000 and the bleeding was worse in her mouth. Her tongue had turned a purple-black and was so swollen from being engorged with blood it nearly filled her mouth and her whole mouth was filled with massive sores. My brother told me later the doctor had asked him earlier to sign a permission slip for an emergency tracheotomy as they felt it might become impossible for her to breathe.

I sat there for about 3 hours that night watching the swelling come down, helping her get rid of the blood from her throat and the black dead tissue that was now coming out. I saw the pink color start to show up in her mouth and lips. Before I left for home that elevator my brother and my youngest niece, Patty, were coming down the hall. I knew by the expression on my brother's face something very special had happened - Bob was overwhelmed and searched helplessly for words. He said when you started to talk to Sis he was overwhelmed with something happening to him - I looked at Patty, and she replied, "Me too." Marguerite said it came thru the phone to her and my older niece experienced it also - She said the only way she could describe it was that it was as if she was being bodily lifted up right off the floor.

I had never seen anything like Marguerite's mouth even as a nurse - Her blood platelet count had fallen to 3000 and the bleeding was worse in her mouth - Her tongue had turned a purple-black and was so swollen from being engorged with blood it nearly filled her mouth and her whole mouth was filled with massive sores - My brother told me later the doctor had asked him earlier to sign a permission slip for an emergency tracheotomy as they felt it might become impossible for her to breathe.

I sat there for about 3 hours that night watching the swelling come down, helping her get rid of the blood from her throat and the black dead tissue that was now coming out - I saw the pink color start to show up in her mouth and lips. Before I left for home that night she could close her mouth, move her lips and talk and, she said, she wanted to sit up in the chair while the other nurse and I changed her bed -

The change in her the next day was unbelievable. The bleeding stopped after you called -

Today starts her fourth week in the hospital. The problem is that although they keep giving her blood platelets and whole blood to bring her count up, it does not hold - Her spirits are still remarkable - She said this afternoon to tell you she thinks of you all the time and pray for you -

My next, Patty, is flying down from Fresno in the morning to be tested to see if she can be the donor of what is called "family platelets". There is a machine which they have nicknamed the "Vampire Machine". The donor, which has to be her children, sister or brother (which she does not have), or mother or father (who are too old) is hooked up to this machine and his blood is circulated thru it and returned to his body - but, the platelets are withdrawn. The healthy person's body immediately replaces them. My oldest nephew, Jimmy, has had Rheumatic Fever, and they will not accept him - My oldest niece, Suzy, and her brothers are just getting over bad colds so they can't use them at this time - So, please, Dad, Patty's platelets will do what is necessary -

So, Father, this is where things stand at present - I know that through you God gave a great grace to Sis, Bob and my niece who were in the room at the hospital - I was especially happy for my brother. He tried so hard to explain it and couldn't, I told him I understood for I was granted such an experience during World War II when I was in the Women's Army Corp in Italy. I was not a Catholic at the time, but walked into the beautiful Church at New Pompeii and was suddenly overwhelmed with a feeling of the closeness of God, as if He were a foot away from me - I've never forgotten it -

Again, Father, my apology for the delay, but it was deliberate - I wanted to give you details of her progress - It is still very much in the hands of God - she is not bleeding - I beg you, Father, to keep her in your special prayers for many need her and she has so much to give and gives so freely and joyously - Perhaps, of one so close as you ask, He might let her remain here a few more years - Many of us would gladly take her place, but He would be getting a poor exchange -

Sod bless you, Father, and thank you so much,

Mary Jane Young -

I'm sure my brother will write you when it is possible.

CLARETIAN MISSIONARY AUXILIARIES --- NEWSLETTER

APRIL 1972

MESSAGE FROM OUR SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR

SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR - REV. FATHER ALOYSIUS ELLACURIA, C.M.F.
CLARETIAN MISSIONARY FATHERS PHONE (213) 731-9329
1119 WESTCHESTER PLACE LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA 90019

The following special message was received during March from our Founder, and Spiritual Director, Father Aloysius. The letter announced the formation of his new congregation, The Missionaries of Perpetual Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament and Perpetual Veneration of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The Most Reverend Father General of the Claretian Congregation visited us on February 1st, and he liked our group very much, as everyone does here in Fatima and its neighborhood, particularly the two Bishops, the Ordinary of Fatima and his Auxiliary. Father General thought that because of the Perpetual Adoration of our Group, that for the moment it were better that this, my group, would be a new congregation under the direction of the Bishop of the Diocese. Later on, when it grows and expands into various Nations it can be a Confederate Congregation with the Claretian Fathers, just like the Capuchins are with the Franciscans. By the way, the Franciscans have about fifteen or more Confederate Orders with separate Generals and rules. But, all of them claim St. Francis as their Father. It happens the same way with other religious orders.

You can announce this to the Guilds--that we will continue following in this separate congregation, the great ideals of one of the greatest Saints ever in the Church, our most beloved, St. Anthony Mary Claret. It will be the purpose of this new congregation to keep alive the virtues, traditions, zeal for souls and devotion to the Most Blessed Sacrament and the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

The full title of this new congregation, as the letterhead tells you, is Missionaries of Perpetual Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament and Perpetual Veneration of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Our great exemplar and Spiritual Father will ever be Saint Anthony Mary Claret.

In the Heart of our Blessed Mother,

Father Aloysius Ellacuria, C.M. F.

LITANY OF HUMILITY

which His Eminence, Cardinal Merry del Val, was accustomed to recite after the celebration of the Holy Mass.

O Jesus! meek and humble of heart.
Hear me.

From the desire of being esteemed,
From the desire of being loved,
From the desire of being extolled,
From the desire of being honored,
From the desire of being praised,
From the desire of being preferred
to others,
From the desire of being consulted,
From the desire of being approved,
From the fear of being humiliated,
From the fear of being despised,
From the fear of suffering rebukes,
From the fear of being calumniated,
From the fear of being forgotten,
From the fear of being ridiculed,
From the fear of being wronged,
From the fear of being suspected,

Deliver me Jesus,

Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

That others may be loved more than I,
That others may be esteemed more than I,
That in the opinion of the world, others may increase, and I may decrease,
That others may be chosen and I set aside,
That others may be praised and I unnoticed,
That others may be preferred to me in everything,
That others become holier than I, provided that I may become as holy as I should,
